

Job Description and Expected Profile

- Participate and contribute to the ongoing work at ICES on post-war recovery and reconciliation; inter-religious conflict and coexistence; transitional justice; women's economic empowerment; the use of art to foster reconciliation and healing; human rights, gender and social inclusion, including ongoing work on precarious work, ex-combatants, religious syncretism, migration, climate change, caste and disability
- Develop a research paper of publishable quality on one of these issues, or on a topic of particular interest to the Fellow
- Engage in independent research, and a capacity to work with a diverse team

The ICES has recently launched an online museum of memory and coexistence and the Fellow may contribute to this depending on his or her interest

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-June 2020 (3 months)

The program will be implemented in Sri Lanka, Colombo.