

ANALYZE

1 The group(s) or identity (ies) mentioned in the text.

2 How does the text approach this group or identity?
(prejudice, stereotypes, generalizations...)

3 What are the sources and data that it is based on?

SYRIANS' HOLIDAY TRIPS SPARK OUTRAGE AMONG CITIZENS

With Ramadan celebrations just around the corner, citizens are furious about 72 thousand Syrian refugees who, having fled to Turkey due to the war in Syria, are currently visiting their home country for Eid celebrations. Page 12, Yaprak Özer / Antalya Gündem / Special News

4 What are the social conditions regarding the topic discussed? (E.g. current or past conflicts between the groups, political discussions related to the topic, prejudice in society)

5 What is the effect of the means of communication that is used to disseminate the discourse and who are the possible recipients of this discourse?

6 What might be the social effects and implications of this discourse?